In addition, we would like to thank:
The graphic designer, Ellen Vaughan, Department of Family, Youth and Community Sciences at the University of Florida (UF), who pulled this curriculum together in a format that works well for training professionals and enhances the training experience for both the learner and the trainer.

C. Bruce Dupree, Alabama Cooperative Extension, Extension Comm. Specialist for graphic support to Unit 5.

The editor, Carol Church, at the University of Florida’s IFAS Communication Services, who provided detailed recommendations for making this curriculum reader-friendly.

Dr. Millie Ferrer, Professor, Department of Family, Youth and Community Sciences at the University of Florida, lead author of Grandparents Raising Grandchildren curriculum, for granting permission to use it as a model. Dr. Judy Groff, Volunteer Leader, NC Carolina Cooperative Extension, who provided the curriculum template.

Dr. Nayda Torres, Professor and Chair, Department of Family, Youth and Community Sciences at the University of Florida, who provided ongoing support of this project.

Dr. Susan Jakes, CYFERNet Editor (Community), NC Carolina Cooperative Extension, for feedback on curriculum components.

Dr. June Mead, Cornell University, who provided resource materials.

Last, but not least, this curriculum project would not have been possible without the financial support of the CYFERNet Program of Children, Youth and Families at Risk (CYFAR).
