COURSE DETAILS

This course provides students with hands-on experience in their chosen profession and is meant to be a time of service and innovation to the supervising agency, as well as a significant learning opportunity for the student. Only through a practical experience such as this can the efficient application of knowledge, ideas, and skills in a realistic work setting occur. With this, both the practicum student and the agency should benefit immensely.

Students are expected to learn about the agencies’ organizational culture, policies, goals and objectives, relationships with other organizations and the community at large, the various roles of agency personnel, and the clientele served. Required course assignments are to aid in processing and assessing the practicum experience, and all course assignments relate to professional issues and responsibilities, such as understanding the culture of the organization, issues in ethics, and workplace communication.

PREREQUISITES

To enroll in the practicum experience, FYCS majors must have completed the following required courses, earning a C or better in each:

- FYC 3001: Principles of FYCS

To enroll in the practicum experience, Nonprofit Minors must have completed FYC 4409: Working with Nonprofits in Community, earning a B or better.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The major objectives for the practicum experience will enable the student to:

- develop an understanding of their professional role in the agency/organization.
- complete tasks required of a professional in the field.
- apply theory and classroom knowledge and skills to a practical work environment.
• develop skills and increase knowledge in areas of interest.
• contribute significantly to the activities, events, and projects of the agency/organization.
• reflect on the practicum experience and how it has affected their career plans and goals.
• prepare for future employment or advanced education in related fields.
• develop an understanding of the social issues, disparities, and inequities their agency/organization seeks to address.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
The practicum is a three-credit requirement for students majoring in FYCS or who are working to complete a minor in Nonprofit Organizational Leadership. Students enrolled in this course earn three credits for 240 hours of completed practical work while engaging in-person with their approved agency/organization. Assignments are also given to fulfill course requirements.

1. Journal Assignments
2. Electronic Portfolio
3. Midterm and Final Evaluation
4. Post-Practicum Exercise
5. Practicum Experience Survey

COURSE POLICIES
1. Special Accommodations: Accommodations are changes in the learning environment that remove barriers and provide equitable opportunities for accessible learning and participation. Given that barriers may vary depending upon the environment, students should meet with a Disability Resource Center (DRC) Learning Specialist well in advance of their practicum to discuss reasonable accommodations. Contact the DRC: 0001 Reid Hall, (352) 392-8565, http://disability.ufl.edu

Classroom accommodations may not be applicable or appropriate for a practicum site. Students are responsible for communicating accommodation modifications to their instructor and site supervisor.

All students must meet the following requirements as an expectation of the program:

   a. Students have 15 weeks in SPRING 2022 (must complete a minimum of 12 on-site weeks) to complete 240 contact hours at their approved site.
   b. FYCS recognizes diverse learners may need additional time to complete assignments. Assignments open at least two weeks prior to due dates and students can complete assignments during this time. Thus, there is no need for extensions and therefore none will be provided.
   c. Late arrival accommodations must be negotiated with the site supervisor in advance and should be taken into consideration with the required 240 contact hours.

2. Grading: Grades are a direct result of the effort put into this course. Each assignment has been assigned a possible point value. Points are earned when assignments are completed and accumulate to create a final score. Assignments will be graded on the quality and content of the writing. Students should spell check, grammar check, and proofread work before submitting. Points will be deducted for not following instructions, poor grammar, spelling errors, and lack of appropriate etiquette. For information on current UF policies for assigning grade points, see https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/grades-grading-policies/

3. Grade adjustments: It is unethical and in direct violation of the Honor Code to request an unjustifiable grade adjustment. No extra credit opportunities are offered in this course. Please note that students have 1 week to review assignment grades/comments and contact the instructor with questions concerning the grade. Students who fail to review their assignment scores within one week of release of grades may not request retroactive adjustments on scores.

4. Late Assignments: Assignments are primarily submitted through Canvas and are due by 5:00 p.m. on the date indicated on the course calendar (page 5). There is a 7-hour grace period (until 11:59 p.m. on the due date) for online submissions. Late points will not be deducted during this time.

   - A grace period is intended to accommodate for any technical difficulties while trying to submit your assignment. If you wait until close to 11:59 p.m. before attempting to submit your assignment for the first time and experience technical difficulties, you will not be granted additional time as a result. My advice is to attempt to submit by the scheduled due date (5:00 p.m.) and use the grace period to resolve technical issues that may arise, if any. Do not wait until 11:59 p.m. to try and submit for the first time as work will not be accepted late (after 11:59 p.m.) if something goes wrong.

   - Assignments will not be accepted after the grace period ends without written instructor approval at least 24 hours prior to the scheduled due date. That is, approval must be obtained via email by 5:00 p.m. the day before an assignment is due. The Midterm and Final Evaluations must be received by 5:00 p.m. The grace period does not apply to these emailed evaluations.

You are expected to complete all assignments within the course by the specified dates. Late assignments will not be accepted. Requirements for class assignments and other work are consistent with university policies that can be found at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/. Please see university policy regarding university and medically-excused absences. In the event of an unforeseen emergency (death in the immediate family, sudden illness, etc.), please contact your instructor as soon as possible. Be proactive and forthcoming. Failure to communicate with your instructor may result in a zero (0) grade.

The Canvas app is a great tool for checking your mail, announcements, and viewing your grades. It is not a great tool for submitting assignments as the uploading procedure is unreliable. In addition, I am unable to see you attempted to submit something using the app (I can view your activity in Canvas when using an internet browser). To protect yourself in the event of any technical glitch, do not use the mobile app for submitting assignments. Additionally, I recommend taking and saving screenshots of all Canvas submission confirmations. Failure to document your submission will result in a zero (0) grade should there be a system error. Do not contact your instructor without proper documentation to support your claims, which includes screenshots of submissions and a ticket number from the Help Desk.

5. Attendance: Practicum students should maintain the schedule agreed upon by the site supervisor and approved by the FYCS Practicum Coordinator, as indicated in the practicum proposal packet. All students are expected to have a typical weekly schedule with the understanding that additionally scheduled hours may be required on an as-needed basis as determined by the supervisor.

Practicum students are permitted to observe nationally recognized holidays also observed by the agency (MLK Day, Memorial Day, Labor Day, etc.), as well as University holidays (spring break, homecoming). Although time off for National and University holidays is pre-approved by the Department, final approval for time off during these holidays is at the discretion of the practicum supervisor.

Practicum students must earn all hours at the agency office or during agency sponsored events (on-site). Students are not permitted to earn hours while working off-site or remotely (i.e., home). Note: If a circumstance precludes UF students from completing internship hours on-site, the FYCS Practicum Coordinator will contact practicum students and site supervisors to discuss the processes involved with working remotely.

6. Contacting your instructor: Please contact your instructor through Canvas (not @ufl) email. Keep in mind that email exchanges between students, faculty, and staff are a form of professional correspondence and permanent documentation between two (or more) people, and they are NOT confidential. Be sure your emails are polite, professional, and well prepared before hitting send. Although most faculty try to answer emails promptly, you should allow 2 business days before expecting a response. To maintain a work-life balance, I do not answer emails outside business hours.

7. Email and web access requirement: All students are required to have a UF email account and must be able to access Canvas. You are responsible for regularly checking the Canvas site for the course calendar, announcements, and other course resources/materials. If you are experiencing issues with Canvas call 352-392-HELP or connect via email (helpdesk@ufl.edu). Phone and email support are available 24/7. Do not contact your instructor without a ticket number from the help desk.

ASSESSMENTS

1. Journal Assignments: To help students monitor their progress and reflect on their practicum experience, each student will be responsible for submitting journal assignments throughout the practicum experience. Refer to the provided rubrics for specific grading criteria.
2. Electronic Portfolio (EP): The purpose of the EP is to highlight what you have accomplished during your time as a practicum student. Since there is a great level of diversity in the FYCS major and the Nonprofit minor, this is a unique opportunity to showcase the various activities you have been involved with and document the on the job skills you acquired throughout the semester. More information will be available on Canvas.

3. Midterm and Final Evaluation: The midterm and final evaluations are completed by the agency supervisor at the midpoint of the semester (midterm) and again at the end of the practicum (final). These forms should be provided by the student to the site supervisor and may be hand-written. These forms must be signed by the site supervisor and emailed directly to the instructor by the site supervisor. These forms directly impact student grades. Failure to meet the required hours or turn in the final evaluation by the due date will result in the student receiving a failing grade in the course. Practicum students must meet the required minimum hours by the last class day of the semester.

4. Post-practicum Exercise: Students are expected to demonstrate professionalism and proficiency by completing a post-practicum exercise. More information on this assignment can be found on Canvas.

5. Practicum Experience Survey: This survey allows the student to ‘grade’ their practicum site and provide feedback regarding their practicum experience. Information contained in this survey will assist the department with recommending the site for future practicum students. The student is encouraged to provide honest, constructive evaluation of their experience. This typed form is uploaded to Canvas for the instructor to review, and with the student’s permission, will be available to other FYCS students after the end of the semester. This form is not shared with the site supervisor.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Any assignments you submit, including your practicum proposal, must be original works authored by you as an individual in the course unless your instructors provide explicit permission for collaboration. Your thoughts are unique and valuable, and assignments and examinations provide you with an opportunity to share your insights with your instructor.

- Please be mindful that as a result of the registration process at the University of Florida, any enrolled student is committed to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.”

- You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

- It is assumed that you will complete all work independently unless the instructor provides explicit permission for you to collaborate on course tasks. Furthermore, as part of your obligation to uphold the Honor Code, you should report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. It is your individual responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code.

- Violations of the Honor Code at the University of Florida will not be tolerated. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. For more information regarding the student honor code, or student complaints, please see: https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/policies/student-honor-code-student-conduct-code/

FYCS DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION STATEMENT

The UF/IFAS Department of Family, Youth and Community Sciences is committed to engaging positively in a global and diverse society through its teaching, extension, and research efforts. That commitment is demonstrated by creating an inclusive educational environment that fosters belonging as we mentor students, perform relevant scholarship, and conduct outreach for families, youth, and communities that is sensitive and responsive to the needs of diverse audiences. Intentional effort is made to providing access and equity to underrepresented, underserved, marginalized, and minoritized people in Florida and beyond.

ONLINE COURSE EVALUATIONS

Student assessment of instruction is an important part of efforts to improve teaching and learning. At the end of the semester, students will be given the opportunity to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course using a standard set of CALS and university criteria.

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing a course evaluation online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens and can complete the evaluation through the email they receive from GatorEvals or in the Canvas course menus under GatorEvals. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/.
SOFTWARE USE

All faculty, staff and students of the university are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against university policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate.
