Course Information:

Course Description (UF Catalog):
This course covers major areas of social policy pertaining to families. Key legislation affecting families are highlighted. Emphasis is placed on providing opportunities for students to think critically and engage in discussions about trends and controversies in family policy.

Course Goal: The overall goal of this course is to help students develop the conceptual, analytic, and practical skills for understanding and influencing family policy. The primary aim of this course is to answer the question, “How can family policy be used to strengthen all families?” To answer this question, it will be important to understand contemporary families, what family policy is, and various ways to influence policy decisions.

Course Objectives:
When you successfully complete this course, you will:

1. Define family policy, based on accepted scholarly definitions and new thinking in the field.
2. Engage in critical thinking in discussions and presentations, analyzing key family policies in light of changing families and assumptions about families.
3. Engage in objective discussions with peers about policy issues.
4. Describe how policy is made and apply this knowledge to policy examples.
5. Identify ways to engage in family policy, based on examples of research, advocacy, and community participation.

A note on critical thinking: In activities, discussion, and participation, you will have opportunities to practice critical-thinking skills. These are essential when it comes to understanding and working with... policy. This means to be aware of your own views, assumptions, and values; to contribute to a safe environment for all to cultivate awareness; to challenge your thinking through group discussions and in-and out-of-class activities; and to analyze policies for their assumptions and biases. (Critical thinking does not mean to criticize other people. In fact, we will be encouraging dialogue and discussion rather than debate.)

Required Readings:
- Readings will be made available through Canvas.
- Read the Miami Herald, the New York Times, or Washington Post. NPR News, and/or PBS Nightly News are highly recommended.

Other Readings:
- Subscribe to a Florida government news feed for the relevant Senate and House committees and follow committee activities.
- Subscribe to The Children's Campaign Current http://iamforkids.org/.
- You may also want to subscribe to Sayfie Review for more Florida legislative and political news. http://www.sayfiereview.com/

Technology Requirements:
For this class you will need access to a computer and sufficient wifi/data to stream. Please contact Dr. Duncan if you are having trouble meeting these requirements.

Certified Family Life Education (CFLE):
Please note that the content of this course is approved by the National Council on Family Relations as part of the University of Florida’s Certified Family Life Education (CFLE) Program in the Department of Family, Youth and Community Sciences. This course is approved to meet professional requirements for training in specific content areas that prepare a student to meet standards for provisional certification as a family life educator. See Dr. Duncan if you are interested in becoming a CFLE.

Course Expectations:

1. Attend lectures: You are expected to attend lectures. During our in-person sessions we will engage in discussion and have opportunities for participation, in addition to lecture. Attending lecture ensures you receive course content and are able to contribute to and learn from the experiences and viewpoints of others.

2. Working independently: Please note that all written work should be completed by you personally. Assistance from others in completing assignments or exams is considered cheating, and any known instances of cheating will be referred to the Dean of Students office.

3. Readings & Effort: You will be assigned up to 30 or 40 pages of reading a week, which should be complete at the beginning of the week to get maximum benefit from the lectures. You should expect to spend two hours on this course outside of class time. Since we are in class 2 ½ hours per week, you should expect to spend about 7 hours a week reading, studying, and working on assignments.

4. Exams: Missed tests and presentations will result in a grade of zero, unless you provide written, professional documentation for your absence with a reason consistent with UF policy. You MUST provide written, verifiable proof of your need to miss the exam or presentation before your absence or the day you return. Email or call the instructor no later than 8 a.m. the morning of the test or presentation to explain why you are going to be absent. Provide documentation the first day you return to class that states in writing the date that you are cleared to return to class.
   a. Make-up exams will be given at the instructor’s discretion, but if given, they must be completed within the work week of the student’s return to class. Make-up exams will not be given after this time frame. You will be expected to take the exam as soon as you return to school; this may be before the next time the class meets, but you must take the exam immediately upon your return; you are responsible for arranging a make-up exam with the instructor. You are allowed to make up exams ONLY as a result of an incapacitating illness (i.e., you are not physically able to come in to class for the exam or perform work) or other unanticipated circumstances warranting a written excuse (e.g., death in the family), consistent with UF policy. Written and verifiable documentation is required. Examinations missed for any other reason will receive a grade of ZERO.

5. Late work: I understand that things happen and may prevent you from meeting a deadline, despite your best efforts. Therefore, there is a 24-hr grace period for assignments. As long as your assignment is submitted within the 24-hr grace period, there is no need to contact the TAs or me. After the 24-hr grace period, late assignments will not be accepted, except on a case by case basis and will receive 10% off per day for up to 5 days unless the absence is documented as excused per UF policy. Participation points are not able to be made up.

6. Grades are important to students, so I will do my best to grade your work as soon as possible. Assignments submitted will be returned to you with feedback online, usually within a week. I am happy to go over all assignments/exams with you in an individual Zoom meeting.

7. Communicating with the Instructor: I am happy to answer questions, meet with students, etc. during office hours and beyond. If you need to get in contact with me, my preferred communication method is via Canvas email. Please note, it is my goal to respond to emails within 24 hrs. Emails sent after 5pm, on weekdays, will be responded to the following business day. Emails sent during the weekend will be responded to on Monday.

Tentative Course Calendar:

Note: The instructor reserves the right to correct or adjust the syllabus and calendar as needed. There may be changes made over the course of the semester. You are responsible for keeping up with updates made on the Canvas site and with announcements.

Exams: All exams will be online, open-book, timed exams. If you need extra time, please present me with an accommodation at the beginning of the semester so we can assign you extra time. The final exam will be a comprehensive online exam. Exams will cover any readings, videos, discussions of key concepts, speakers and notes, and all lecture notes. A wiki study guide will be provided 1 week before the first and second exams.

Student-led “roundtable” discussion:
On specific days, the class will meet in small groups (“roundtables”). EVERY STUDENT will be responsible for leading TWO small group discussions of two noteworthy news articles. Students will be expected to:
   • Find a current (published since January 1, 2022) resource (news article, policy or research brief, podcast, etc.) to share with your small group.
   • Submit a brief paper summarizing the article and highlighting its significance to family policy.
   • Create 3-5 discussion questions based on the article to be discussed in your small groups.
   • Facilitate a 10-minute discussion based on your article.
More detailed instructions will be posted on Canvas.

Getting involved (50 points)
This category includes:
   1. Policy maker interview, written summary, and an in-class presentation (25)
2. Attendance at a community or campus educational, cultural, or political event, a written summary and reflection, and an in-class presentation (25).

Family Impact Analysis:
The FIA is an important tool for analyzing family policies. Even if you don’t go into policy work, this tool can help you think critically about how policies and programs influence families. We will practice using the FIA in class. Students will be assigned a policy and will submit their individual answers to a set of critical-thinking questions about the policy. Then, small groups will analyze the policy according to one or two criteria; and each group will report their results in class. This assignment will acquaint you with the FIA, which is an important approach in family policy studies, and will give you an opportunity to apply critical thinking skills to a real family policy example. The choice of policy will depend on the class’s interests and current policy developments.

Other Information:

FYCS Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Statement
The UF/IFAS Department of Family, Youth and Community Sciences is committed to engaging positively in a global and diverse society through its teaching, extension, and research efforts. That commitment is demonstrated by creating an inclusive educational environment that fosters belonging as we mentor students, perform relevant scholarship, and conduct outreach for families, youth, and communities that is sensitive and responsive to the needs of diverse audiences. Intentional effort is made to providing access and equity to underrepresented, underserved, marginalized, and minoritized people in Florida and beyond.

In-Class Recording
Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor. A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Online Course Evaluation Process
Student assessment of instruction is an important part of efforts to improve teaching and learning. At the end of the semester, students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course using a standard set of university and college criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/. Evaluations are typically open for students to complete during the last two or three weeks of the semester; students will be notified of the specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/.

Excused Absences and Make Up Work
Excused absences will include: sick days (documented by a medical practitioner), death of an immediate family member, conferences, or authorized UF travel. Submit excused absence requests to Dr. Duncan via Canvas—preferably, email, or in person) prior to or immediately after your absence.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work are consistent with university policies that can be found at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx.

According to the UF undergraduate catalog: “If you do not attend at least one of the first two class meetings of a course or laboratory in which you are registered, and you have not contacted the department to indicate your intent, you can be dropped from the course. You must not assume that you will be dropped, however, if you fail to attend the first few days of class. By posting a notice in the department office, the department will notify you if you have been dropped from the course or laboratory. You can request reinstatement on a space—available basis if you present documented evidence.”

OTHER CLASSROOM POLICIES, PROCEDURES, AND RESOURCES Respect
Practice professionalism in your demeanor and communication. Above all, this means being respectful of each other and the instructor. Please be on time and ready to work; do not leave early. Both of these are disruptive and disrespectful to everyone. Keep conversations with others at a minimum during class time. Keep the dialogue respectful of your peers and of the instructor. Be sure to be objective, nonjudgmental, and non-confrontational.

Put aside distractions and be ready to participate in class. Your phone should be silent during class and should be put away during class time. Laptops, tablets, etc. should be used for class purposes only (not Facebook, surfing, etc.). Texting, chatting, and surfing are distracting to your classmates and the instructor … and your own ability to learn. Students who are in violation will be warned (first offense) and asked to leave the classroom (second offense). Use of any devices may be forbidden during exams. Poor classroom behavior has several possible results: a warning; a meeting with the instructor; the loss of participation points; referral to the Dean; or removal from class if necessary, per UF policy.

Academic Honesty
The University of Florida holds its students to the highest standards, and we encourage students to read the University of Florida Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code (Regulation 4.040), so they are aware of our standards. Any violation of the Student Honor Code will result in a referral the Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution and may result in academic sanctions and further student conduct action. The two greatest threats to the academic integrity of the University of Florida are cheating and plagiarism. Students should be aware of their faculty’s policy on collaboration, should understand how to properly cite sources, and should not give nor receive an improper academic advantage in any manner through any medium. For more information regarding the Student Honor Code, please see: https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/policies/student-honor-code-student-conduct-code/.

As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity by abiding by the Student Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by Students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.”

Undergraduate Honors and McNair Program
I encourage students who are interested and meet the basic requirements of 60 credit hours and a GPA of at least 3.75 to consider joining the Undergraduate Honors Program, especially if you are continuing onto graduate school. Participation in the honors program for this course requires a contract within the first three weeks of the semester. Check out: https://fycs.ifas.ufl.edu/undergraduate/undergraduate-honors/.

Students interested in graduate school from underrepresented backgrounds (e.g., low income/first generation) are encouraged to look into the McNair Scholars Program: http://mcnair.aa.ufl.edu/

Software Use
All faculty, staff and students of the university are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against university policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate.
Campus Helping Resources

Students experiencing crises or personal problems that interfere with their general well-being are encouraged to utilize the university’s counseling resources. The Counseling & Wellness Center provides confidential counseling services at no cost for currently enrolled students. Resources are available on campus for students having personal problems or lacking clear career or academic goals, which interfere with their academic performance.

Services for Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the UF Disability Resource Center (352.392.8565) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodations. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.
