SOME THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT KATE H. FLETCHER

MY TEACHING PHILOSOPHY

Hello and Welcome Gators. I’m Kate H. Fletcher and my motto for my Principles class is Where Passion and Purpose Meet. I believe this motto is key to understanding who I am as an educator and what you can expect our classroom learning environment to be like. I want you to know that my passion meets my purpose through teaching. I love being an “EduGator”, in particular teaching undergraduate students. I am a Senior Lecturer with a 100% teaching appointment in the Department of Family, Youth and Community Sciences (FYCS). FYCS – a long title with a relatively short description: we are an interdisciplinary applied social science major. What does that entail, well, I lovingly refer to FYCS as the “Helping People through Prevention Science” major.

Figuring out my passion and purpose took overcoming several major changes as an undergrad, graduating with my bachelors, taking a gap year, completing a master’s degree, and finally being asked to teach a class at UF in FYCS. It wasn’t until the second semester of teaching that I realized my true passion and purpose in life – to educate the next generation of world changers. You are a world changer who is in pursuit of your passion and purpose. I hope to help facilitate this process through our classroom experiences utilizing experience learning.

In order to become a world-changer you need to know how to meet people right where they are at, which is my main goal for each class that I teach. To teach you how to “meet people right where they are at” I believe it is my responsibility to effectively model and implement this goal. Therefore, my teaching objectives are centered on the following: create a student-centered trust-based classroom, create a learning environment where you feel safe, supported, and encouraged to experiment with your passions and purpose. I believe our class content is enriched through service-learning, which will include reflection as a key component.

I also believe that by creating a welcoming learning environment and office hours experience for you, you will have a desire to learn and grow in your own knowledge and understanding. I believe that you will want to lean-in. I want our learning environment to be engaging and to provide you with ample opportunities to share your knowledge, be an active learner, and a critical thinker. I believe that you enter the classroom with your own knowledge base and learning style; together we will build on that base by exploring historical, current, and relevant theories, along with concepts and topics in the realm of FYCS. I want you to come alive in your learning, your growth, and your knowledge. I believe that your passions will come alive through course content and service-learning. In following these approaches, I will effectively facilitate a learning environment where collectively we learn, we grow, we understand, we communicate, and we create a new lens by which to see the world, so that you are properly equipped to be a world changer. In doing so, I believe you will discover what you are most passionate about and then pursue that purpose as a world changer.

ACADEMIC HONESTY
As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.” You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

It is assumed that you will complete all work independently in each course unless the instructor provides explicit permission for you to collaborate on course tasks (e.g. assignments, papers, quizzes, exams). Furthermore, as part of your obligation to uphold the Honor Code, you should report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. It is your individual responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code.
