REQUIRED TEXTBOOK & READINGS

RECOMMENDED (NOT REQUIRED) TEXT

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course covers the ecological context of youth development, with emphasis on issues of transition, development, problem behavior, risks and opportunities in adolescence, and youth resilience, as it is fostered within individuals, families, and communities.

PREREQUISITE KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS

The following courses are listed as prerequisites in the Catalog: FYC 3001 & FYC 3201. If you do not have these prerequisites, please speak to the instructor. In addition, the following are recommended: (a) an awareness and basic understanding of the challenges faced by youth; (b) some background in theories of human development from an undergraduate social science course; and (c) professional writing skills at the advanced undergraduate level.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. To understand the theoretical and empirical foundations of youth problems including risk, protection, and resilience at the ecological levels of the individual, family, and community.
2. To develop helping skills that are essential for effective youth development practice.
3. To evaluate the efficacy and effectiveness of youth development and prevention programs that are designed to encourage healthy youth development and reduce problematic behaviors and outcomes.
4. To develop a conceptual paper and video PSA that summarizes a youth problem and the principles, practices, and theoretical models used in a fictitious youth development program designed to prevent the problem.

CERTIFIED FAMILY LIFE EDUCATION (CFLE) CREDIT

The content of this course is approved by the National Council on Family Relations as part of the University of Florida's certified family life education program in the Department of Family, Youth and Community Sciences. This course is approved to meet professional requirements for training in specified content areas that prepare a student to meet standards for provisional certification as a family life educator.

See https://www.ncfr.org/cfle-certification/become-certified for CFLE courses and standards.

TOP HAT

We will be using the Top Hat (www.tophat.com) classroom response system in class. You will be able to submit answers to in-class questions using Apple or Android smartphones and tablets, laptops, or through text message.

You can visit the Top Hat Overview (https://success.tophat.com/s/article/Student-Top-Hat-Overview-and-Getting-Started-Guide) within the Top Hat Success Center which outlines how you will register for a Top Hat account, as well as providing a brief overview to get you up and running on the system.

An email invitation will be sent to you by email, but if don’t receive this email, you can register by simply visiting our course website: ****

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

ATTENDANCE & PARTICIPATION (30 POINTS)

In order to fulfill the objectives of this course it is expected that students attend class regularly and on time. Regular attendance both enhances the usefulness of class instruction as well as encourages better performance on assignments. Participation in class activities and discussions is also expected. During class activities, each student will use appropriate interpersonal skills and conduct themselves in a courteous and respectful manner. Although attendance will not be taken every class period, up to 30 points may be earned for attendance and participation this semester.

LATE POLICY

Five (5) points per day will be deducted from all late assignments. Assignments are due online prior to the start of class. Assignments will be considered late if they are not uploaded by the end of the class period on the day they are due. Assignments will not be accepted if they are more than 1 week late and a grade of zero will be given. If there are circumstances beyond your control that make it difficult to get your assignment in on time, it is your responsibility to contact the course instructor or TA as quickly as possible to explain the delay.

PHONES, COMPUTERS, AND OTHER ELECTRONICS

Cell phones should be stored away from view during class with the ringer on silent or off. Laptops can be used for instructional purposes only (e.g., note taking, group activities, etc.). Texting, emailing, chatting, or surfing is not allowed as they are distracting to your classmates and the instructor. Photography and videos may not be taken during class, unless given permission by the instructor.

EMAIL & INTERNET

All students are required to have Gatorlink email and to be able to access Canvas. You will be responsible for checking the FYC 4212 Canvas site at least three times a week for calendar, PowerPoints, assignments, e-mail, and posted announcements.

WRITTEN WORK

All written work for the course must comply with APA (6th Ed.) guidelines. That is, it must be typed on 8 1/2" X 11" white paper, 1" margins, and appropriate headings and subheadings. The font should be 11-12pt (Times New Roman or Arial). All papers should be proofread before they are turned in with special attention to correcting any and all spelling, grammatical, and punctuation errors. Professional use of the English language is expected. If you quote, paraphrase, or summarize the work of others, you must cite your source. Plagiarism will not be tolerated and can result in failure. For further information, see supplemental documents on APA formatting and common grammatical errors.

READINGS

Students are expected to stay current with the reading assignments. The readings will provide the basis for class discussion and the student should read them prior to the class for which they are assigned.

ASSIGNMENTS

The following assignments are required of all students. You must complete all assignments to pass the course. All written assignments must be submitted online through Canvas, which will use the TurnItIn originality tool to assess for plagiarism. The assignments are designed to promote critical thinking and to enhance professional writing skills. Due dates are listed in the tentative agenda. All assignments must follow the guidelines for written work. See supplemental documents on the course website that provide examples of APA formatting and common grammatical errors.

IN-CLASS ACTIVITIES

Students are expected to be present and participate in every class. Students will participate in class discussions, both small group and whole group, in addition to various in-class activities and working groups. In-class activity worksheets will be graded and can only be completed in-class on the day it is assigned. You cannot make-up in-class activities unless you have a legitimate excuse for your absence (see UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ATTENDANCE AND MAKE-UP WORK).

TAKE HOME ASSIGNMENTS

Throughout the course of the semester students will be assigned homework that will further learning in a content area, support class discussion, and/or support completion of the individual and group project. There will be approximately six homework assignments over the course of the semester. Guidelines and grading instructions will be provided in class. It is expected that students will follow the guidelines for written work for each assignment, plagiarism will not be tolerated. Late assignments will be graded based on the course Late Policy.
Students will be assigned to work in groups of 4-5 students based on similar interests in the study of youth problems and solutions. The purpose of this assignment is for 1) group members to identify a youth problem and propose a hypothetical youth development program to address the problem, 2) group members to work independently to summarize the theoretical, empirical, and professional practice evidence that provides a foundation for the youth development organization; 3) group members to work together to create a public service announcement (PSA) that raises awareness of the youth problem and describes/explains the rational for a specific intervention (as if the hypothetical youth development organization actually existed). The assignment will be completed in steps, beginning the second week of classes. Specific instructions, grading policies, and due dates will be provided in class.

EXAMS

Three exams will be given over the course of the semester. Response formats include true/false, multiple choice, and essay. Exam questions will cover class readings, class lectures/discussions, in-class activities, films, and all other course material.

Students must arrive to class on time on exam days. If you arrive more than 10 minutes late you will NOT be permitted to take the exam. Likewise, all Honor Code violations will be handled in accordance with UF Policy.

If an emergency prevents you from making any of the exams, it is your responsibility to contact the instructor or the TA as soon as possible to inform us of the reasons for your absence. If you find that you are unable to take an exam on the scheduled date, it is your responsibility to contact the instructor or TA as soon as possible to schedule an alternative time prior to the exam date.

OTHER COURSE POLICIES

BASIC RULES FOR CLASS DISCUSSIONS

RESPECT OTHERS. This course covers a variety of sensitive issues, and students in the class come from a variety of backgrounds. We expect a class atmosphere of tolerance and respect for every individual and her/his opinion. If anyone feels she/he has been harmed or misrepresented--by the instructors or any individual in the class—I urge you to speak with one me via phone, Skype or e-mail so that the problem can be dealt with immediately. Please do not let feelings build up and interfere with your experience in this course.

EXPECTATIONS OF CONFIDENTIALITY. Respect for confidentiality of personal information shared by your classmates is an absolute must. Do not talk to others about personal information your classmates share in discussions. Likewise, if you choose to share personal information or use a friend or family member as a case example, please refrain from using their names and/or identifying information.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE: Please check your calendars against the course schedule. Any student having a conflict in the class schedule due to religious observances should contact the instructor as soon as possible so that she can make necessary arrangements.
UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACCOMMODATING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

The Disability Resource Center coordinates the needed accommodations of students with disabilities. This includes registering disabilities, recommending academic accommodations within the classroom, accessing special adaptive computer equipment, providing interpretation services and mediating faculty-student disability related issues. Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation.

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACADEMIC HONESTY

As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.” You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

It is assumed that you will complete all work independently in each course unless the instructor provides explicit permission for you to collaborate on course tasks (e.g. assignments, papers, quizzes, exams). Furthermore, as part of your obligation to uphold the Honor Code, you should report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. It is your individual responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code at the University of Florida will not be tolerated. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. For more information regarding the Student Honor Code, please see: http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code.

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ATTENDANCE AND MAKE-UP WORK

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments and other work are consistent with university policies that can be found at:
https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx
ONLINE COURSE EVALUATION PROCESS

Student assessment of instruction is an important part of efforts to improve teaching and learning. At the end of the semester, students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course using a standard set of university and college criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open for students to complete during the last two or three weeks of the semester; students will be notified of the specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results.

NETIQUETTE: COMMUNICATION COURTESY:

All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all online communication. For specific guidelines READ the following: http://teach.ufl.edu/wp-content/uploads/2012/08/NetiquetteGuideforOnlineCourses.pdf

SOFTWARE USE

All faculty, staff and students of the university are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against university policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate.
